

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Assists accessioning and the centrifugation and aliquoting process as needed to input specimen collection and receipt information into the lab information system. Adheres to established procedures.

Successfully operates instrumentation for testing purposes, as well as recognizes deviations from expected results and notifies appropriate personnel

Properly documents when quality control is outside of established guidelines and takes corrective action according to established procedures

REQUIREMENTS

Bachelor of science degree with 12-month MLS program and clinical laboratory science certification
OR

Associate degree in medical laboratory science with MLT certification

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIST

The medical technologist performs routine and complex laboratory procedures on specimens following hospital/laboratory policies and procedures to ensure blood/blood products are safely administered to the patient.

Apply now at

AULTMAN.ORG/CAREERS

AULTMAN