I understand that as a Eucharistic Minister, I am representing the Roman Catholic Church and I am commissioned to minister to a patient's spiritual need at Aultman. The patient or family members must request to receive communion. I understand Aultman personal are not expected to release any information regarding the patient's condition, and I am to keep the patient's hospital stay confidential. Furthermore, I understand that I may be restricted from any part of the hospital at any time, such as intensive care and maternity, and I must observe all Aultman policies. If I fail to comply, I will not be permitted to serve at Aultman as a Eucharistic Minister.
